Re: Special Agent [redacted]

Dear Mr. Kelly:

On December 19, 1975 we concluded a five week jury trial before the Honorable John W. Reynolds. This case involved multiple defendants. The key defendant was Mrs. Sally A. Papia. Mrs. Papia runs an extremely successful restaurant in the Milwaukee area which has long been associated with organized crime. Mrs. Papia is a paramour of Frank Buccieri, a well known organized crime figure in Chicago. The charges included extortion which was evidenced by a burning of a restaurant as well as a contract to break the wrists of [redacted] a former chef of Mrs. Papia. Due to the multiple defendants and the extended period of time over which the extortion took place, this case was a complex one for the jury. Special Agent [redacted] was the agent in charge of the investigation. I can say without hesitation his performance exhibited the highest degree of professional competence and personal dedication.

b6
b7C

During the pre-trial investigative stages Special Agent [redacted] followed every possible investigative lead. Even more importantly during the course of the trial as the multiple defenses became apparent, Special Agent [redacted] did the overwhelming amount of investigative leg work necessary for the successful cross-examination and rebuttal for the government.

For the five weeks of the trial, Special Agent [redacted] provided the investigative competence and perhaps more importantly the personal advice which the prosecution sorely needed.

It was Special Agent [redacted]'s willingness to go above and beyond what was asked of him and become personally committed to success which made this success possible. You can be justifiably proud that [redacted] represents the finest traditions of the Federal Bureau of Investigation. He has earned the respect of this office not only for himself but for your entire organization.
